

The TRANSFORMATIONAL LECTURE SERIES aims to inspire all building industry professionals to embrace their role in creating a sustainable built environment now, as well as ensuring that sustainability becomes integral to all development in the future.

By reminding us why we must act boldly and helping us to imagine a world where sustainability is the baseline, these lectures promise to inspire a revolution!

INSPIRE. MOTIVATE. TRANSFORM.

TRANSFORMATIONAL LECTURE SERIES

RE-MEMBERING THE WORLD

How We Can RE-SET, RE-CLAIM and RE-NEW our Future

Dianne Dillon-Ridgley, Director, Interface Inc.;
Director, Green Mountain Energy Co.

Featured environmentalist, political advisor, and human rights activist Dianne Dillon-Ridgley will reevaluate the interrelationship between sustainability and our economy. In what she describes as the "Big Shift", Ms. Dillon-Ridgley will examine ways to re-frame and restart our society in order to accelerate our path to sustainability.

Ms. Dillon-Ridgley has been the head of several organizations concerned with environment, gender and sustainability issues for the past twenty years. She is also the current managing director of the Global Water Partnership.

Her past leadership roles include President Clinton's Council on Sustainable Development, President of Zero Population Growth, and Executive Director of the Women's Environment and Development Organization. Internationally, Ms. Dillon-Ridgley served as an advisor and member of the U.S. Delegation to the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development, and as a member of the UN Commission on Sustainable Development.
