

Facing Climate Change is a documentary project that tells the story of global warming through local people. From semi-nomadic reindeer herdsman in the Arctic to wildfire fighters of the American West, photographer Benjamin Drummond and producer Sara Joy Steele use photography and multimedia to engage audiences with stories from communities around the world.

*Photographer Benjamin Drummond
Producer Sara Joy Steele*

Earthforms / Living Relics - Sara Osebold and Vaughn Bell approach landscape with tenderness, pathos, humor and satire, creating sculptures, performances, images and environments that evoke the vital, talismanic quality of landscape. Performance by Sara Osebold will take place at the SRG Gallery during the Living Future FunConference pARTy at the pARTnership, May 6, 9 -11 pm.

Artists Sara Osebold & Vaughn Bell

110 Union Street, Suite 300, Seattle, WA 98101

Just north of the Seattle Art Museum and south of Pike Place Market

